

1976 Domestic Violence Act	1542 Witchcraft Act (punished by death)	1072 Forest Laws set aside royal land	1215 Church forbids trial by ordeal	1810- 222 crimes punishable by death	1857- Transportation abolished	1645-47 Matthew Hopkins witch hunts	1916 Military Service Act	1778 Transportation To Australia starts	2006 Racial and Religious Hatred Act
1476- first printing press in England	1933- execution of under 18s end	1888- Jack the Ripper murders	1685-1815 The Enlightenment period	Hue and cry	Murdrum fine	1348- Black Death and the Statute of Labourers	1536- Henry VIII stops the church from offering Sanctuary	Crime of Heresy	1547- Vagrancy Act
1601-The Poor Law Act	1615- Transportation to North America begins	1902- Holloway Prison for women opens	1642- 51 the English Civil War	17 th century - increase in smuggling	1850- import taxes cut, reduces smuggling	Oliver Cromwell's new 'moral' laws in the 1650s	1736- new Witchcraft Act decriminalises witchcraft	Increase in Highway robbery in the 18 th century	1606- Guy Fawkes and Gun powder plotters executed
1829- England's first professional police force set up in London	1967- the Sexual Offences Act decriminalises homosexual acts for men over 21.	James I'S Demonologie	Solitude and Servitude in 18 th century prisons	1834- Tolpuddle martyrs arrested	1748- Henry Fielding set up the Bow Street Runners	1777- John Howard published The State of Prisons	1991- law recognises rape within a marriage	1869- first National Crime Records set up	1868- Public hanging ends
1971- many drugs first became illegal	1823- Robert Peel's Gaol Act passed	1901- Fingerprint branch set up at the Met Police	Elizabeth Fry criticised the separate system at Pentonville	1930s- use of police cars became more common	1925- became illegal to drive a car drunk	1980s- Neighbourhood watch idea was brought in by Margaret Thatcher	1842- Pentonville Prison was built	1967- Abortion decriminalised (some conditions)	1850- only murder and Treason punished by death
1902- the first Borstal was set up in Kent	1988- first murder convictions based on DNA	Town constables and night watchmen (1500-1700)	1948 Criminal Justice Act	1856 Police Act- all areas had a professional police force	Benefit of the clergy	20 th century- use of community service as a punishment	1965- death penalty abolished for 5 years	1969- death penalty abolished (except high treason)	1909- police bicycles introduced

Religion and the church	Individuals	Government	Wealth and Poverty
Science and technology	Attitudes in society	Travel	Towns and development