

Using different coloured pencils, colour in a corner of each box you could use to answer these 12 mark 'explain why' questions about the Weimar Government. Watch out for red herrings!

Challenge: Think of other key words, events or people that you could use in your answers, and write them in the empty boxes at the bottom.

Explain why some Germans disliked the Weimar Government by the end of 1919

Explain how Germans showed their dissatisfaction with the Weimar Government

Explain why 1923 was such a bad year in Germany

Explain why 1924 to 1929 was a 'Golden Age' in Germany

Explain what events led to Hitler coming to power in January 1933

Passive resistance	Military	Social Democrats	Dawes Plan	Armistice
30th January 1933	Hyperinflation	13% of land lost	N.S.D.A.P.	Wolfgang Kapp
Gustav Strassman	Right Wing	1929	May 1923 Presidential election	Unemployment
Munich Putsch	Karl Liebknecht	Coalition	Hitler's promises	Paper Money
Article 48	The Spartacists	Mein Kampf	David Lloyd George	L.A.M.B.
Invasion of the Ruhr	July 1932 Election	£6.6 billion	General Strike	Kellogg-Briand Pact
November Criminals	1919	The League of Nations	Locarno Strike	Colonies
Democracy	Stabbed in the back	Bamberg Conference	59 years	Proportional Representations
American Banks	Blame	Friedrich Ebert	Rentenmark	Woodrow Wilson
Young Plan	1923	Left wing	The Golden Age	Rosa Luxemburg
President Hindenburg	Freikorps	Georges Clemenceau	11th November 1918	Treaty of Versailles
Wall Street Crash	November 1932 election	Kaiser Wilhelm II	Reparations	The Fuhrer over Germany tour
Propaganda	Mussolini in Italy, 1922	Diktat	Brown shirts / SA	The 25 point programme