How to revise key quotations

Tasks to guide your revision of key quotations

- Group these quotations in terms of themes, e.g. secrecy, good vs. evil (duality), war, nature, love, fear.
- Break the quotations down to make them easier to remember.
- Choose your top ten quotations that you could use or your top three for each poem.
- Consider the different focuses that you could be asked about and decide which quotations you would use for each.
- Create cards for each theme/character/poem using these quotations. You could draw images to help you remember them.
